CANCELLATION OF THE REGULAR PROGRAM IN MARCH THROUGH EASTER +++ FLEXIBLE PROGRAM SHOULD REGULATIONS CHANGE

Yesterday's announcement from the Swiss Federal Council, which sees no major easing of restrictions, has forced the Opernhaus Zürich's hand regarding the scheduled calendar of events. Operating an opera house requires a considerable amount preparatory planning in any number of artistic areas, including booking travel, producing costumes, constructing set pieces, and many others. Given the Federal Council's final decision, which is set for February 17, we are not in the position to realize the calendar of events as scheduled.

It is with considerable regret that the Opernhaus Zürich, in conversation with the Canton of Zurich, announces the cancellation of the grand opera and ballet performances planned for March, up through and including Easter Monday on April 5, 2021.

The revivals of "Don Pasquale" and "Werther" will not be able to take place and have been cancelled. Subscription tickets for all cancelled performances will be automatically annulled and refunded.

The Opernhaus Zürich is in a position to quickly adapt to fluctuating conditions, and has a dynamic program full of smaller formats at the ready, should the Federal Council decision allow for a limited number of spectators for performances in March.
